COUNTY FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE

At the request of Mr. T. J. Locke of Columbus, Miss., Fair Price Commissioner for Mississippi, the following Fair Price Committee has been appointed for Jackson county:

W. M. Canty, Chairman; Pascagoula, Miss.; J. J. McIntosh, Moss Point, Miss.; O. D. Davidson, Ocean Springs, P. M. Davis, Escatawpa, Miss.; R. A. Roberts, Orange Grove, Miss.; J. B. Gibson, Hurley, Miss.; Mrs. R. A. Bowers, Pascagoula, Miss.; Miss Ina Thompson, Moss Point, Miss.; Mrs. Clyde Friar, Ocean Springs, Miss.

The object of the committee is to assist the State Commissioner in devising some means to reduce the cost of necessities and to prevent profiteering. The members will be duly notified of their appointment and duties.

CHURCH CENSUS.

The Catholic, Baptist, Methodist, Lutheran, Presbyterian and Episcopal church members in Pascagoula are to unite next Monday to take a complete religious census of the town and its vicinity.

Every one is requested to give the visitors prompt attention and complete answers.

THE CITY SCHOOLS.

The trustees of the city schools met in regular monthly session on Monday night of this week.

Supt. Walker's report showed no material change in the attendance of the various schools in the past month, total enrollment being still around 950 and average attendance being about 850.

All the schools seem to be doing excellent work, despite the crowded condition, about the only cause for criticism being the irregular attendance of the children of a few families, whose parents apparently are indifferent to their children's progress.

The thanks of the school board were extended to the Parent-Teacher Association of the Plagios school for their activity in securing window shades, piano, etc., for the school without cost to the city, more than $200 having already been raised to pay for same. Thanks were also extended to Mr. Elliott for a handsome clock presented to this school.

The patrons of the colored school have recently built a concrete walk at their school, without expense to the city, and were also given a vote of thanks for their interest in the school.

CARD OF THANKS.

Thanks are hereby extended to Mr. Crawford, manager of the Warfield theatre, for the splendid picture, "The Still Alarm," exhibited on December 10th, the net proceeds of which were donated to the fire company's building fund. We also thank the Scranton Fire Company Band for the excellent music on the occasion.

SCRANTON FIRE CO. NO. 1.
W. W. Walker, Secretary
V. Ros, President.

The Jackson County Medical Society held its annual meeting Monday in the office of Dr. W. A. Cox, Custom House Building. New officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Dr. J. A. Taber; Vice-President, Dr. R. R. Ward; Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. J. N. Rupe; Board of Censors and Delegates, S. B. McIlwaine; Red Cross and Relief, Drs. A. P. McArthur and W. A. Cox. Drs. MAKES GENEROUS GIFT.

A well known citizen of Jackson county, who desires to remain unknown in the transaction, has notified Miss Carrie Cook, county agent, and Mrs. M. I. Noel, demonstration agent in home economics and girls' club work in South Mississippi, that he will give the club girls of this county forty high-bred Buff Orpingtons and as many Belgian hares as they may want—thus starting them in a profitable business.

Mr. James O'Donohoe, who has been with the overseas army for the past eighteen months and for whom there was much anxiety, reached Hoboken, N. Y., Christmas day and proceeded to his father's home at Biloxi, where a hearty welcome awaited the young soldier. Mr. O'Donohoe spent Monday in Pascagoula, greeting relatives and friends.

O. T. Olson and J. E. Royell, deserting sailors from the U. S. S. Dixie at Pensacola, were picked up here Tuesday by Chief of Police Ezell and have been turned over to the naval authorities.

Chancellor W. M. Denny, Jr., left Sunday evening for Wiggins to convene the regular January term of chancery court.

Miss Lida Meriwether spent Monday in New Orleans.

Evangelist N. R. Stone, of Laurel, Miss., delivered a great message at each service. He is a preacher of unusual gifts and is getting hold of his hearers in a remarkable way. Mr. Jesse T. Williams of Atlanta, Ga., is in charge of the music and the singing as a splendid feature of these meetings.

People of all classes and every denomination will find a warm welcome at these services.

FROM AN OLD CITIZEN.

W. Mead Campbell, foreman of the Chronicle, recently received the following letter from Frank B. Richmond of the Dallas (Texas) News, which will prove interesting to numbers of our older citizens, who knew the writer years ago:

Dear Mr. Campbell—I have read your interesting letter in the last Typographical Journal. I was surprised to know that Pascagoula (Scranton, as we called the railroad town when I was a boy) had progressed so much as to have a union.

My father was one of the original owners of the Democrat-Star, being associated at that time with Capt. P. K. Mayers. He afterward moved to Biloxi and started the Herald with G. W. Wilkes.

Reading your letter recalls the days of long ago when I lived there, and I might say in passing that there is no spot on the globe I had rather live than on that dear old Mississippi Gulf Coast. The climate is better and the people are better there than anywhere else in the world. I hope your new union will grow and prosper.

Mr. Jules Morlet and family, accompanied by "Biscuit" Canty, took an automobile trip to Bayou Caden Sunday, spending the day with relatives and friends.

American ship building is forging steadily ahead.

FILM SHOWS ONE WAY TO ELOPE WITH GIRL

If anyone in the population of movie fans wants to know how to elope with a girl he can get inside information from Vitagraph's latest picture "This Film Entitled, "Over the Garden Wall," and presenting Bessie Love in the stellar role, shows all the tricks of the eloper's trade.

Just grab the girl. Never mind if she pulls your hair. Then tumble her into your touring car and away with her. The whole thing can be seen when the picture is shown at the Dixie theatre on Wednesday.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.

South Pascagoula street, near Central School. Next Sunday, January 11th, service will be in the forenoon only, at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Wm. Wedig, Pastor.

Miss Arthemise Paquette entertained some of the Boy Scouts and Chawondose Camp Fire Girls at her home on Buena Vista street New Year's Eve night. The young people stayed till late, waiting to help ring the New Year in and the Old Year out. Games were indulged in and a very pleasant evening was spent. They were chaperoned by their lovely Camp Fire Guardians, the Misses Leona Nelson and Edith Morris. There were about fifty present. Refreshments were served by the young hostess, and all departed very happy.

OLD VIRGINIA MINSTRELS.

The best negro minstrel show that El Pasoans ever saw was that given Tuesday night by the Old Virginia Minstrels. The house was well filled and the audience, black and white alike, laughed or applauded heartily throughout the evening. There was lots of real fun and several acts that would win applause anywhere.

One of the strong features of the show is that the comedians are real comedians. They are the funniest negroes that it has ever been the privilege of El Paso theatergoers to see. Express Messenger, El Paso, Texas.

The Old Virginia Minstrels will be at Pascagoula Friday, January 16.
